ARTICLE I GENERAL

Section 1.01 Name

This organization shall be known as the Sacramento Association of Health Underwriters, with the byline of Your Local Benefits Specialists, herein after referred to as the Association. Its principal office and place of business shall be in the County of Sacramento. The Sacramento Association of Health Underwriters is a local chapter of the California Association of Health Underwriters and is a not-for-profit organization chartered by the National Association of Health Underwriters.

Section 1.02 Territorial Limits

Insurance professionals who live or work in the counties in close proximity to Sacramento County are eligible for membership in this organization.

ARTICLE II PURPOSE

Section 2.01 Purpose

The purpose of the Association is defined by the mission statement, as follows:

The mission of the Sacramento Association of Health Underwriters is to promote and encourage the association of agents, brokers, and health insurance and other benefit professionals for the purpose of educating themselves and the public; and to advocate responsible health legislation and ethical industry practices.

Section 2.02 Objectives

The objectives of the Association are to place the sale and service of health insurance and employee benefits upon the highest possible plane; to advance public knowledge for the need and benefit of health insurance and employee benefits;

to provide and promote a program of continuing education for its members; to be active as an association in public affairs and to encourage its members to support and contribute to community activities;

to advocate fair business practices as they relate to health insurance and employee benefits, to our members and to the insuring public;

and to promote the code of ethics of the National Association of Health Underwriters, hereby made a part of these bylaws

Section 2.03 Limitation of Methods

The Association shall be nonprofit, nonpartisan and nonsectarian.

Section 2.04 Inclusiveness of Terms and Pronouns

Wherever from the context it appears appropriate, each term stated in either the singular and plural pronouns stated in either the masculine, feminine or neuter gender shall include the masculine, feminine or neuter.

ARTICLE III
ORGANIZATION

Section 3.01 Organization

This association shall manage, supervise, direct and control the business, funds, assets and property of the association. The Association may hire staff or contract for services to provide management and administrative support to the Association.

ARTICLE IV
MEMBERSHIP

Section 4.01 Membership

Members in good standing of this Association shall be health insurance and employee benefits professionals who are engaged in the sale and service of health insurance and employee benefits. Membership in this Association includes membership in the California Association of Health Underwriters and the National Association of Health Underwriters. Members in good standing shall conduct themselves in a professional manner and adhere to the code of ethics of the National Association of Health Underwriters.

Section 4.02 Associate Membership

Associate membership shall be limited to unlicensed health insurance and employee benefits professionals, and to licensed health insurance and employee benefits professionals who are non-commissioned and who function only as support administrative staff, or who can give proof that they are members in good standing of another chartered Association of Health Underwriters in the State of California.

The Board of Directors shall have final determination of classification of any member.

Each member shall be entitled to one vote.

Section 4.03 Eligibility and Qualification for Membership

Any person eligible for membership under Section 4.01 and 4.02 of these Bylaws is qualified for membership.

Section 4.04 Admission to Membership

Any person eligible for membership under Section 4.01 and Section 4.02 of these bylaws and qualified for membership under Section 4.03 of these bylaws, shall be admitted to membership upon payment of dues as outlined in Section 4.05, and submittal of a completed, signed application for membership.

Section 4.05 Dues

Dues payable to the Association by members shall be in such amounts as shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors. In no event shall the dues exceed a maximum amount established by the Board of Directors from time to time. Dues shall be payable for the first year on admission to membership and annually thereafter at such times as may be fixed by the Board of Directors. Dues shall be billed by the National Association of Health Underwriters and shall include the amount due to the National Association and the state and local chapter.

Dues payable to the Association by associate members shall be in such amounts as shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors. In no event shall the dues exceed a maximum amount established by the Board of Directors from time to time. Dues shall be payable for the first year on admission to membership and annually thereafter at such times as may be fixed by the Board of Directors.

A member or associate member, on learning the amount of the dues determined by the Board of Directors and the time or times of payment fixed by the Board of Directors, may avoid liability for the dues by promptly resigning from membership, except where the member is, by contract or otherwise, liable for dues.

Section 4.06 Assessments

Memberships shall be nonassessable.

Section 4.07 Number of Members

There shall be no limit on the number of members the Association may admit.

Section 4.08 Transferability of Membership

Neither the membership in the Association nor any rights in the membership may be transferred or assigned for value or otherwise.

Section 4.09 Membership Roster

The Association shall keep in written form (or in any form capable of being converted into written form) membership information containing the name, address, and other pertinent information of each member. The information shall also contain the fact of termination and the date on which such membership ceased. Such information shall be kept at the principal office of the Association and shall be subject to the rights of inspection required by law and set forth membership is issued for in Section 4.12 of these Bylaws.

Section 4.10 Inspection Rights of Members

A member, or associate member, in good standing may view a list of the names, address and voting rights of those members entitled to vote for the election of Directors, as of the most recent record date for which it has been compiled or as of the date of demand. The demand shall state the purpose for which the list is requested. The membership list shall be available on or before the latter of sixty (60)-days after the demand is received or after the date specified therein as the dates as of which the list is to be compiled.

(a) Members Permitted to Exercise Rights of Inspection

The rights of inspection set forth in Section 4.12 of these Bylaws may be exercised by the following:

1. Any member, for a purpose reasonably related to such person's interest as a member;
2. The authorized number of members for a purpose reasonably related to the members' interest members; and

Section 4.11 Nonliability of Members

A member of the Association shall not solely, because of such membership, be personally liable for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of the Association.

Section 4.12 Termination of Membership

(a) Causes

The membership and all rights of membership shall automatically terminate on the occurrence of any of the following causes:

1. The voluntary resignation of a member;
2. Where a period of time, the expiration of such period of time;
3. The death of a member;
4. The dissolution of members or associate members;

6. The termination of all memberships or any class of members upon the amendments of these bylaws permitting the termination.

(b) Nonpayment of Dues

The membership of any member who fails to pay his or her dues when due and within ninety (90) days thereafter shall automatically terminate at the end of such ninety (90) day period.

(c) Effect of Termination

All rights of a member in the Association and in its property shall cease on the termination of such member's membership. Termination shall not relieve the member from any obligation for charges incurred, services or benefits actually rendered, dues, or fees, or arising from contract or otherwise. The Association shall retain the right to enforce any such obligation or obtain damages for its breach.

ARTICLE V MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Section 5.01 Place

Meetings of members shall be held at the principal office of the Association (or such location within the State of California as may be designated from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors.)

Section 5.02 Regular Meetings

Regular meetings of members shall be held at such time and place as shall be fixed by the board of directors.

Section 5.03 Special meetings

Special meetings of members shall be called by the President of the Association and held at such place as is fixed in Section 5.01 of these Bylaws or at such times and places within the State of California as may be ordered by resolution of the Board of Directors. Five (5) percent or more of the members of the Association may call special meetings for any lawful purpose.

Section 5.04 Annual Meetings

The annual meeting of the Association shall take place during July of each year. The time and location shall be fixed by the Board of Directors and notice thereof provided to each member at least ten (10) days before said meeting. The slate of candidates shall be ratified at the annual meeting and subsequently sworn in for the current term of office. Nominations from the floor can be accepted prior to the ratification vote subject to a 48 hour advance notice in writing to the Nomination Committee. In the event there are floor nominations, the contested board position(s) shall be determined by a secret ballot distributed, collected and tallied during the meeting, with the results announced to the members present at the annual meeting.

Section 5.05 National Association Meetings

The Board of Directors shall elect and designate members of the Association as delegates to represent this association at the meetings of the House of Delegates of The National Association of Health Underwriters. Alternate delegates may also be elected. Notice of the election of this association's delegates shall be sent by the secretary to the office of NAHU within the prescribed time limits as established by NAHU in its bylaws. There shall be additional delegates elected as membership exceeds prescribed numbers in the NAHU bylaws.

Section 5.06 Notice of Meetings

Written notice of members shall be either personally delivered, faxed, electronically transmitted by email, or mailed by first-class (or registered or certified) United States mail, postage prepaid ten (10) days before the date of the meeting to each member who on the record date for notice of the meeting is entitled to vote thereat. In the event given by mail or other means written communication, the notice shall be addressed to the member at the address of such member appearing on the books of the Association at the address given by the member to the Association for the purpose of notice. Where no such address appears or is given, notice shall be given at the principal office of the Association. The Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Association, for the purpose herein mentioned, shall execute an affidavit of the giving of the notice of the meeting of members. In the case of specially called meeting of members, notice that a meeting will be held at a time requested by the person or persons calling the meeting not less than thirty-five (35) days nor more than ninety (90) days after receipt of the written request from such person or persons by the President of the Association shall be sent to the members forthwith and in any event within twenty (20) days after the request was received.

No meeting of members may be adjourned for purposes of continuation at a later time or alternative location for more than forty-five (45) days. If a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, and thereafter a new record date is fixed for notice or voting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each member of record who, on the record date for notice of the meeting, is entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5.07 Contents of Notice

The notice shall state the place, date, and time of the meeting. The notice of any meeting at which Directors are to be elected shall include the names of all those who are nominees at the time the notice is given to the members.

Section 5.08 Waivers, Consents, and Approvals

The transactions of any meeting of members, however called and noticed, and wherever held, shall be as valid as though transacted at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if quorum is present in person and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the persons entitled to vote but not present in person signs a written waiver of notice, a consent to the holding of the meeting, or an approval of the minutes of the meeting. All such waivers, consents, and approvals shall be made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

Section 5.09 Quorum

A quorum at any meeting of members shall consist of ten percent of the members in good standing.

Section 5.10 Loss of Quorum

The members present at a duly called or held meeting at which quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjournment notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough members to leave less than a quorum, if such action taken, other than adjournment, is approved by at least a majority of members required to constitute a quorum.

Section 5.11 Adjournment For Lack Of Quorum

In the absence of a quorum, any meeting of members may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of a majority of the votes represented in person, but no other business may be transacted except as provided in Section 5.09 of these Bylaws.

Section 5.12 Voting

(a) One Vote per Member

Each member is entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the members.

(b) Record Date of Membership

The record date for the purpose of determining the members entitled to notice of any meeting of members is twenty (20) days before the date of the meeting of members. The record date for the purpose of determining the members entitled to vote at any meeting of members is twenty (20) days before the date of the meeting of members. The record date for the purpose of determining the members entitled to exercise any rights in respect to any other lawful action is twenty (20) days prior to such other action.

(c) Cumulative Voting

Cumulative voting shall not be authorized for the election of directors or for any other purpose.

(d) Proxy Voting

Members entitled to vote shall not be permitted to vote or act by proxy.

(e) Limitations Pertaining To Election of Directors

Directors shall be elected by written ballot delivered electronically to the membership at least thirty (30) days prior to the election.

(f) Solicitation of Ballots

Ballots shall be solicited in a manner consistent with the requirements of giving notice of members, meetings set forth in Section 5.04 of these Bylaws and of voting by written ballot set forth in Section 5.12 of these Bylaws. All such solicitations shall indicate the need for the member to be present at the annual meeting for his/her vote to be valid.

(g) Revocation of Ballot

A written ballot may not be revoked regardless of its method of delivery.

Section 5.13 Conduct of Meetings

(a) Chairman

The President of the Association or, in his or her absence, any other person chosen by a majority of the members present in person shall be Chairman of and shall preside over the meeting of members.

(b) Secretary of Meetings

The Secretary of the Corporation shall act as the secretary of all meetings of members; provided that in his or her absence, the Chairman of the meetings of members shall appoint another person to act as secretary of the meetings.

(c) Rules of order

The Robert's Rules of Order, as may be amended from time to time, shall govern the meeting of members insofar as such rules are not inconsistent with or in conflict with these Bylaws, or the law.

ARTICLE VI DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors shall be composed of no less than seven (7) members, each serving a one year term and eligible to be re-elected for multiple terms. The total number of Directors on the Board of Directors shall not exceed seventeen (17) members.

Section 6.01 Selection and Election of Directors

(a) Nominating Committee - At least three (3) months prior to the date of the annual meeting, the President shall appoint a Nominations Committee. This committee shall consist of the president, president-elect, executive director or another designee. The duties of this committee shall be to solicit and receive nominations and to prepare a slate of candidates. The Nominations Committee shall have general charge of the election process including the preparation, distribution of the slate of candidates, and vote (and the distribution, collection and counting of ballots if there are floor nominations during the annual meeting). The Chair of the Nominations Committee shall report the results of the election to the members present at the annual meeting.

The Nominations Committee shall prepare a ballot containing the names of the nominees on the slate at least one (1) month prior to the annual meeting. At that time members shall be advised that they may nominate additional candidates from the floor at the annual meeting. Floor nominations must be made at least 48 hours prior to the annual meeting by written notice to the Nominations Committee. At least two representatives from the Nominations Committee shall count the ballots of any nominations from the floor. The winning candidate shall be added to the slate of candidates prior to the ratification vote, and subsequently sworn into office with the rest of the candidates.

(b) Election of Directors - Each candidate must be an active member in good standing and have agreed to accept the responsibilities of directorship. The office of Past-President is not an elected position and will be automatically filled by the outgoing President of the previous year's Board of Directors. Likewise, the office of President is not an elected position and will be automatically filled by the President-Elect of the previous year's Board of Directors. Both positions must be held by a member in good standing. All other Director positions are to be nominated and elected annually according to the procedures outlined below."

The Nominations Committee shall take into account achieving a balance brokers, general agencies and carriers.and shall consider current committee service when choosing nominees for the Board.

Section 6.02 Publicity of Nominations/Elections

Candidates shall be presented by the Nominations Ccommittee to the membership via electronic mail at least thirty (30) days prior to the annual meeting. Notice in that electronic mail shall alert members that they may nominate additional candidates from the floor with 48 hour written notice at the annual meeting. If an office is contended and needs to be resolved by a secret ballot, the winner will be determined by a simple majority. If a simple majority cannot be reached upon the first vote, then the top two candidates will have a runoff and ballots will be cast again until a simple majority is reached.

Section 6.03 Determination

All newly elected Board members shall be in attendance with the outgoing Board members at the first regularly scheduled meeting in July for the induction of new directors.

Section 6.04 Vacancies

A member of the Board of Directors who shall be absent from three (3) regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be dropped from membership on the Board by a majority vote of its members voting at any meeting thereof. The Director to be dropped shall be given notice, and the right to a hearing. Vacancies on the Board of Directors and officers shall be filled by the vote of a majority of the remaining members of the Board of Directors.

Section 6.05 Policy

The Board of Directors is responsible for formulating the policies of the organization. These policies shall be maintained in a Policy Manual or like instrument, to be reviewed and revised as necessary.

Section 6.06 Dismissal

Any Director may be removed for good and sufficient cause, as determined by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors present when a quorum has been established.

Section 6.07 Management

The Board of Directors shall contract the services of an Executive Director who shall be the Assistant Secretary of the Corporation, and shall fix his/her compensation and other considerations of services rendered.

Section 6.08 Compensation

The Directors shall serve without compensation.

Section 6.09 Meetings

(a) Regular and special meetings of the board of directors shall be called by the President of the Association.

(b) All meetings of the board shall be held at the principal office of the Association or as changed from time to time as provided in Section 5.01 of these Bylaws.

(c) Time of Regular Meetings

Regular meetings of the Board shall be held, without call or notice, at a predetermined time and date each month, set by the president at a specified location.

(d) Special Meeting

Special meetings of the Board may be called by the Board or the President or any Vice-President or the Secretary or any two (2) Directors. Special meetings shall be held on forty-eight (48) hours notice delivered personally or by telephone or electronic mail. Notice of the special meeting need not be given to any Director who signs a waiver of notice or a written consent to holding the meeting or on approval of the minutes thereof, whether before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting, prior thereof or at its commencement, the lack of such notice to such Director. All such waivers, consents and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

(e) Quorum

A majority of the authorized number of Directors constitutes a quorum of the Board of Directors for the transaction of business, except as hereinafter provided.

(f) Transactions of the Board

Except as otherwise provided in the Articles, in these Bylaws, or by law, every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present is the act of the Board provided, however, that any meeting at which a quorum as initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of Directors if any action is taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting, or such greater number as is required by the law, the articles, or these Bylaws.

(g) Conduct of Meetings

The President shall preside at meetings of the Board of Directors. The Secretary of the Corporation or, in the Secretary's absence, any person appointed by the presiding officer shall act as Secretary of the meeting. Members of the Board may participate in a meeting through use of conference telephone or similar communication equipment, so long as all members participating in such meeting can hear one another. Such participating shall constitute personal presence at the meeting.

(h) Adjournment

A majority of the Directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place. If the meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-four (24) hours, notice of the adjournment to another time or place must be given prior to the time to of the adjourned meeting to the Directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment.

Section 6.10 Action without Meeting

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board individually or collectively consent in writing, either manually or electronically, to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. Such action by manual or electronic written consent shall have the same force and effect as the unanimous vote of such Directors.

ARTICLE VII
